FOREWORD

To you Seniors who are about to leave Arcadia High School, I say, think of education as a continuous never ending process. Keep up with your reading of good books, magazines, newspapers, and through this media continue to develop a keen interest in the world in which you live.

Try to find opportunities, wherever you are, to be of real service to your fellowmen. Affiliate yourselves with the institution and movement that has for its purpose the making of a better world.

Remember that genuine and lasting success comes to him who can lose himself in the interest of others. It is my wish that you may have such success.

Respectfully,

John F. Cindric

Administration and Faculty

TO OUR STUDENTS AND FRIENDS

As our farewell message to the Seniors of 1968, we wish to impress upon you that your education does not end with your graduation. If higher education is your goal, you will learn many new and exciting things. However, if your formal education ends at the closing of your twelve years here at Arcadia, then you will find that your opportunity to learn has not necessarily ended.

Experience is a slow but thorough teacher and it is common knowledge that most of us get a fair share of our education by way of experience. It would be a wonderful thing if we could accept the testimony of others who have traveled the road we are on, provided always that the testimony has behind it authority. Experience will teach us that if a thing is worth doing at all, it is worth doing well.

This advice is not new. It antedates the proverbs of Solomon, and, as a matter of fact, goes back to the very beginning of things-- the Creation.

If the Omnipotent in constructing the universe in which we live had been careless in only one or two little things, or had done something in an imperfect manner, then we could look for a collision of planets, or a spilling of the ocean over the land, that would put us out of existence in a very short time. Perhaps this perfection in the beginning was meant to be an example for us to follow.

From out the precepts of the olden time we gather this one. "Wisdom is the principal thing, therefore get wisdom; and with all thy getting get understanding; for the merchandise of it is better than the merchandise of silver and the gain thereof than fine gold."

All along the road of life the paramount thing is to do the thing at hand thoroughly, understandingly, and in a manner done so well that the keenest critic could find no fault. Things done by halves, and this includes both teaching and learning, are never done right.

We, the faculty, paraphrase a well known poet and leave this thought with you, "LABOR FOR LEARNING, in letters bold, for learning is better than silver or gold, silver and gold will vanish away, but learning, once gotten, will never decay."

We salute Mr. John Cindric, the able and astute leader of Arcadia Local School. Mr. Cindric has accepted the challenge of these uncertain times and tries to show us that change and uncertainty in our time, is a necessary condition of life; and that through our education and discipline in school we shall be, in part, prepared for the challenge that shall be ours.

Administrators

Mr. Cindric and Mr. Slough

With two such enthusiastic educators as Mr. Cindric and Mr. Slough as our leaders, Arcadia will continue to be a school that stands firm in the belief that education can enlarge our concern for mankind and teach us to place service to society ahead of personal interests.

Mrs. Wolery

It has been said that a perfect secretary anticipates the every need of her employer, and has a solution for every problem before it appears. We certainly feel that Margaret is just about perfect and she surely helps us solve many problems.

Margaret enlivens our Main Office with her wit and personal charm. The beauty of her seasonal decorative displays are appreciated by the whole school.

Charm and efficiency are a truly outstanding combination. Thank you, Margaret Wolery.

High School Faculty

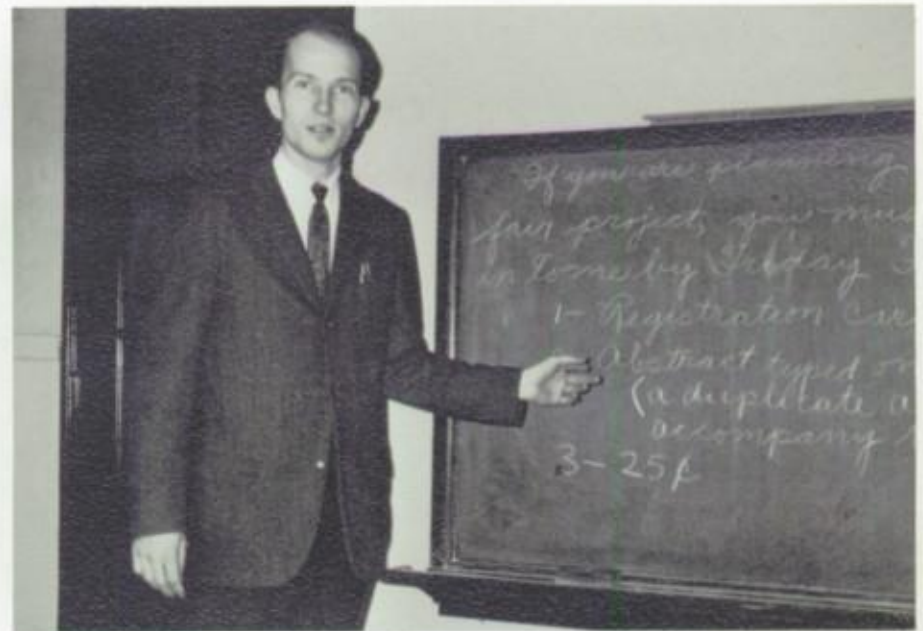

Mrs. Cammell, what are you dreaming up for your history students now?

Mr. Cunningham shows Gary how to weld a finger to a fender.

Mr. Deter, a man who is strictly business.

Mr. Elsea reminds students of science day deadlines.

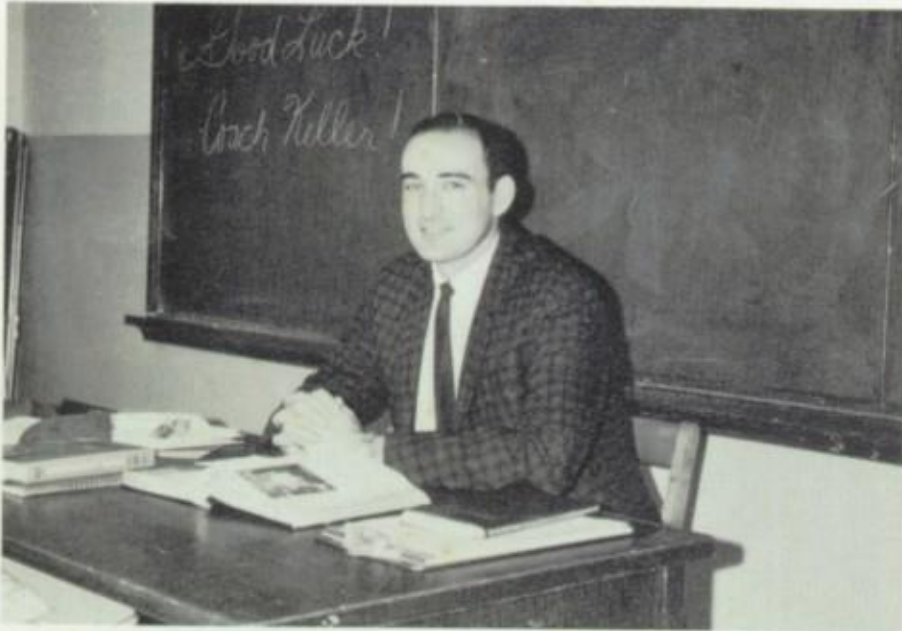

Mrs. Haley says, "Que lastima!"

Mrs. Hudak, why is that sign up there?

Smiling Faces of the

Mr. Keller smiles as he reads the assignment on the board.

Mrs. Noel tries to cram for one of her own tests.

Mr. Ricketts, sponsor for two classes, is pressed for time.

Mrs. Knouse wants to know if you have ordered your Arcadian.

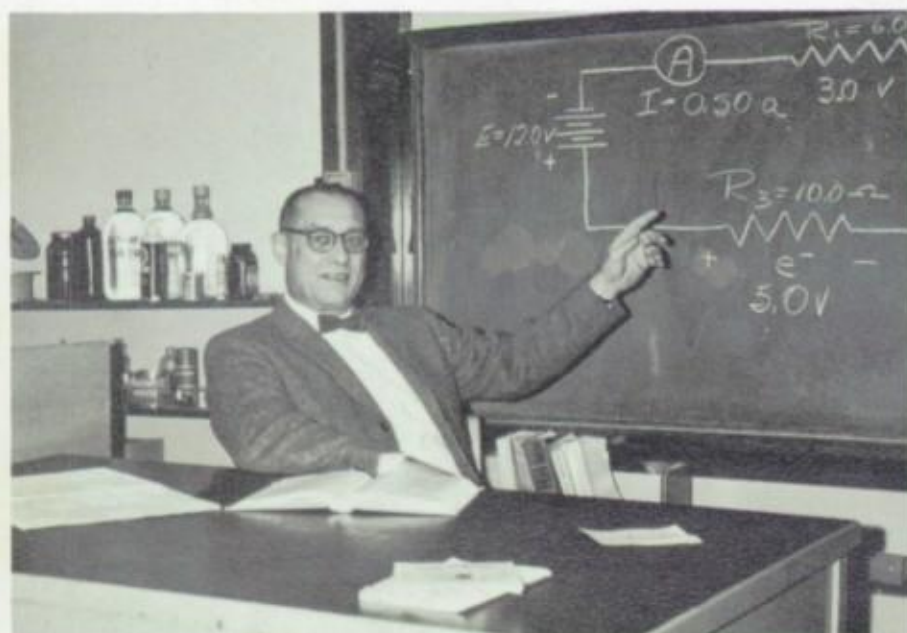

Mr. Reigle watches his gym class and wonders.

High School Faculty

Mr. Slough trying to rationalize away his paper work.

Mr. Swasick points to the blackboard and smiles.

Mrs. Wykoff smiles, now she's teaching boys to be good cooks too.

Mr. Steyer catching his breath after math. class.

Mr. Vrooman worked hard and put on a great operetta.

Bus Drivers

Every morning and every evening parents of students at Arcadia entrust their children to the drivers of our nine school buses. Responsibility for the safety of these students on busy highways, icy roads and windy and rainswept lanes does not rest lightly upon the shoulders of the men who drive our buses. They recognize the necessity for careful and alert driving under all conditions. We have complete faith and trust in their discretion of what constitutes safe driving.

Cooks

Mrs. Paul Conine, Mrs. Raymond Nesbitt and Mrs. Ray Mellott are busy every day preparing appetizing and attractive lunches for Arcadia students. Good nutrition is an aid to healthy bodies and minds. Healthy students are alert students.

Custodians

Mr. William Bickle, Mr. Robert Good and Mr. Clyde Cardwell keep our school in tip-top condition at all times. Good housekeeping for over 700 young people is a never ending operation. Our maintenance men maintain the machinery of the building and keep our rooms and halls clean and neat.

Class Will

JUDY STEYER: Wills her natural curly hair to Blayne Kreais, now you can have that babydoll look, Blayne.

GARY CONINE: Wills his basketball knee injury to Dennis Wonders, now Dennis, you'll have a good excuse for the next basketball season.

DUANE JACOBS: Wills his Simca to Dick Johnson, now you'll have another car that won't run!

DIANE LOWERY: Wills her two lockers to the Junior class, that is if you can get into them.

RUTH RATHBURN: Wills her position as Mrs. Noel's helper to Dennis Hill, now you can be in the library legally, eh Dennis!

ALAN RUSSELL: Wills his ability to catch girls to Gary Gaertner, now you won't have to chase them.

ALANA HEISCHMAN: Wills Tom Bechtal the Physics Lab, use it for your own destructive purposes, Tom.

STAN BRANDEBERRY: Wills his draft and I.D. cards to Jerry Isbell, now it will be legal, Jerry.

DOTTY BEACH: Wills her quiet ways at school to the Sophomore girls.

JULIA LONG: Wills a ball and chain, a pair of her hand-cuffs, and a roll of scotch tape to Gary Gaertner, AH!! Utopia at last.

JACQUIE SWARTZ: Wills her ability to endure after-prom-parties to Nancy Heiserman, now you can see what goes on, eh Nancy???

PAT WELLS: Wills her Mustang to Dick Johnson, now Dick you'll have a car that at least runs!

DICK FRUTH: Wills his ability to play the baritone to Gerry Graham, now you won't have to strain so much when you play your tuning note!

MARY LUTE: Wills her sixth period library to Dave Thomas and Dennis Yeager, now boys you can talk all you want.

KATHY MARTIN: Wills her driving ability to anyone who wants to make a quick get-a-way.

DON SWARTZ: Wills his nickname of Idiot to anyone who wants it.

KATHY WENTWORTH: Wills her big black pocket-book to Kathy Wolery, you better start eating your Wheaties, Kathy, or you won't be able to lift it!

KEN ROLLER AND LOUIS SMITH: Will Khoeler's lawn thatcher, which they lost, to anyone who can find it.

MARSHA VALENTI: Wills her figure to Steve Williams, now they'll really have something to talk about.

RUBEN PEDRAZA: Wills his long hair to John Dutton, maybe this will help him with the girls.

DON RISER: Will his ability to get his drivers license taken away to anyone who wants to save on gas and tires.

DEBBIE SCHETTER: Wills her silly giggle to her sister, Beth, too bad Faculty, you're not going to get off the hook that easily.

LUANNE JENSEN: Wills her clarinet to Stan Jacobs. The next time somebody takes yours, you'll have one to play with.

FRANK PURKEY: Wills his defensive football ability to Becky Cole, now maybe you can stop Al!

JIM WALTERS: Wills his ability to be yelled at and moved in study hall to Ace Griffith, now you don't have to worry about sitting in the same seat twice, Steve.

MIKE BOLIN: Wills his singing ability to Chauncey Nalle, better luck next year, Chauncey.

BECKY TREDWAY: Wills her pleasing smile to her brother, John. See John, it really doesn't hurt to smile once in awhile.

GLORIA HUTCHINS: Wills her ability to endure Jacquie Swartz's driving to anyone who thinks they can live through it.

RUTH PELTON: Wills her ability to get along with the teachers to Dave Roberts. Now Dave, maybe the teachers will have a break.

CAROL WOOLLEY: Wills her long skirts to Diane Taylor, now you can surprise the boys, Diane.

RICHARD COLEMAN: Wills his I.D. card to Steve Holman. Now you won't have to bother anybody on Friday nights!

MARGARET WEHRLE: Wills her personality to anyone who is brave enough to have it.

ALAN RADER: Wills his driving ability to Barb Smith, now maybe you can get your license, Barb.

BRENDA HASSAN: Wills her hair pins from the Prom to Gary Gaertner, now Gary you won't have to go around swiping them for your hair!!

TOM SMITH: Wills his ability to sleep in study halls to anyone who wants to learn by sleeping!

DUANE DUKES: Wills his everlasting hate towards the Juniors to the teachers, now maybe the Juniors will get the grades they deserve.

STAN WOLFARTH: Wills his wrestling ability to Barney Johnson, not that you'll do very good in wrestling, but man when it comes to the girls

GERALD LEE: Wills his photographic ability to Linda Waggoner, now those little happenings at noon will be preserved forever.

To the green Freshmen, the Senior Class wills them the permission to change colors.

To the Sophomores, the Senior Class wills one of life's most important traits---Shyness.

To the Juniors, we will our scholastic and athletic abilities, which they need to reach the full and complete life here at Arcadia.

Senior Assembly

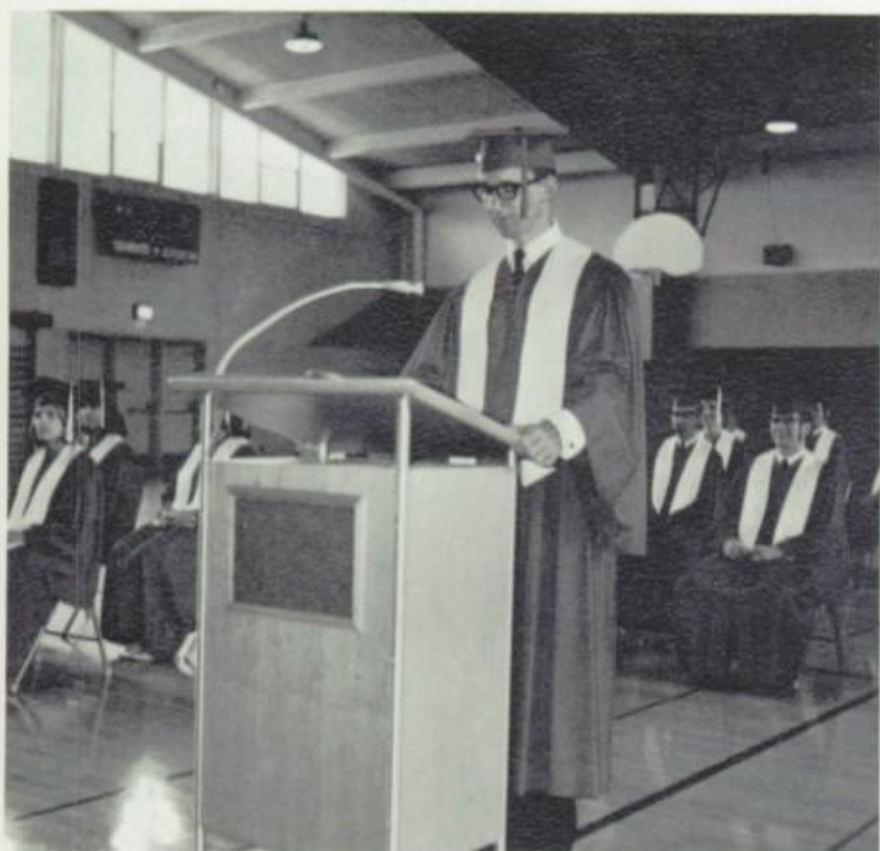

Senior Assembly was held May 24, 1968, for the high school students and faculty of Arcadia High School. Duane Jacobs began the program with the reading of the Class History, followed by Alana Heischman with the Class Poem. The future of the Class of '68 was predicted in the Class Prophecy presented by Ruth Rathburn. The Class Will was delivered by Gerald Lee. The Senior Choir sang two numbers, "I Believe," and "Climb Every Mountain."

The Valedictorian, Duane Dukes, and the Salutatorian, Luanne Jensen, received their awards. Alan Russell, Senior Class president, presented the Senior Key to the Junior Class president, Becky Wiseley.

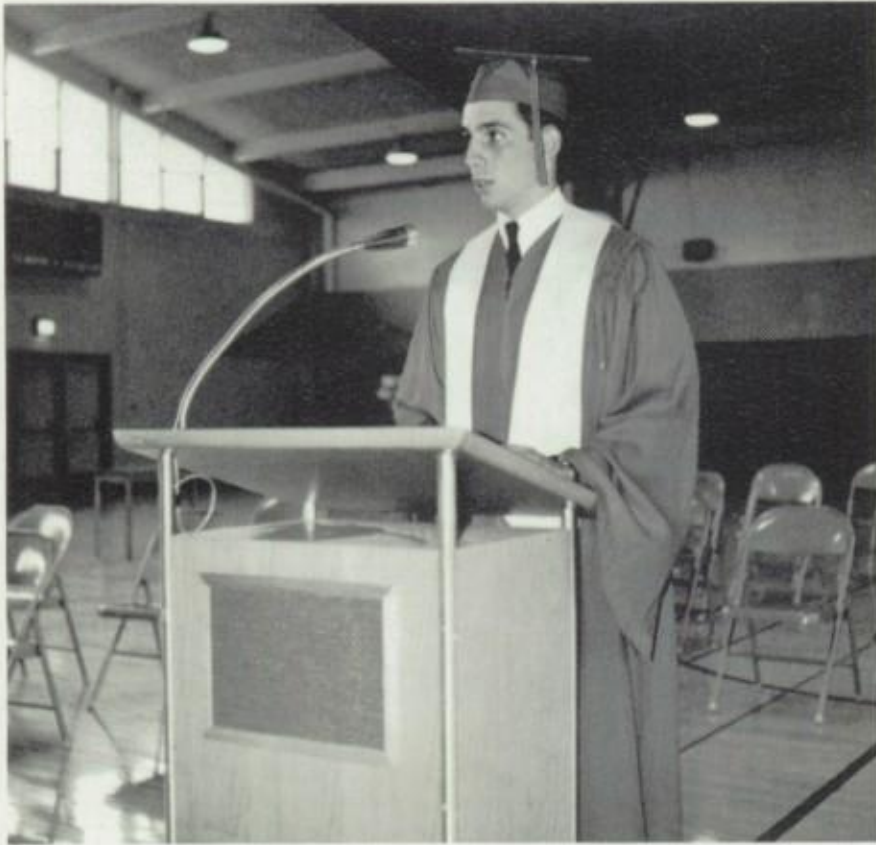

The 1968 Senior Assembly was ended with the Seniors singing the Alma Mater for the last time as students of Arcadia High School.

The Queen and her court were chosen by popular vote by grades nine through twelve.

The week of October twentieth was on the miserable side. All week it was raining or a chill wind blew over the mud. It was mighty difficulty to find a decent time for a rehearsal.

Finally the night of the big event arrived. The mighty Arcadia Redskins played the Van Buren Black Knights. The Redskins played a hard game, but they lost after all.

The Queen was crowned at half time while the Arcadia High School Band provided appropriate music.

After the game a dance was held in the old gym in honor of Queen Pat and her court.

The Student Council was in charge of the voting, the crowning ceremony and the dance. The Senior Class sold mums the week before and at the game.

The Sophomore dance each year is set aside to initiate the Freshman into high school. Counting pieces of toilet paper, bobbing for apples, getting painted with lipstick, and "nosing" a bean across the gym floor are just a few of the perils which highlight the evening.

Freshmen are Humbled

Shamrock Get-Together

The annual Freshman dance honors St. Patrick, the Patron Saint of Ireland. The success of this dance was a result of an experiment in which the Freshmen not only provided dancing but various other activities for the enjoyment of their guests.

Varsity "A" Dance

This is the second year that Varsity A Club has been at Arcadia. It is made of boys who have earned their letter in any sports activity. This year the Club entertained the student body with a dance held in the high school cafeteria. They engaged the Notables to provide music for their guests and a good time was had by all who attended.

Row One: Dave Crouse, Rick Zellers, Ed Bishop, Lester Lute and Mike Stroub. Row Two: Mrs. Knouse, Jane

Boes, Deb Conrad, Brenda Wells, Gayle Brown, Becky Wiseley, Sue Graumlich, Jackie Shaw and Kathy Wolery.

"The Tin Hero" was presented by the Junior Class on May 3, 1968. It was a three act comedy concerning a fond and adoring mother who exaggerated everything pertaining to her son. How Doug, supported by his loyal sister, saves his mother's face, gets his girl, and becomes a real hero is the theme of our play.

"As you say my dear"

It must be love.

"Our Tin Hero"

Stroke, stroke, will he ever learn?

But they told me you couldn't swim!

My hero, My Hero, MY HERO!!!

The hero returns.

I want to talk to ze sweet Douggy. I am Claudette.

Kathy Wolery and Mike Stroub were wonderful student directors.

The Enchanted Sea

With a row boat and a mermaid overhead, the 1968 Arcadia Spring Prom got underway, under "The Enchanted Sea". It was held at the Findlay Elk's Club on May 11, 1968. Beautiful decorations, music by The Jades, and the hard work of the Student Council made the Prom a large success.

The Senior and Junior Classes chose Alana Heischman and Alan Russell to rule their kingdom beneath the deep. The Queen was presented with a jeweled crown and a kiss. Alan and Alana ascended to their fish net covered thrones to scan their subjects of fish, plants, and octopus. Together they led the beautifully gowned maidens and escorts in the royal dance.

Spring Prom

Junior-Senior Banquet

The Junior-Senior Banquet was held on May 11, 1968 at the Findlay Elk's Club. Those attending had their choice of baked steak or ham. The meal was quite good and enjoyed by all.

The Welcome was given by Becky Wiseley and Response by Al Russell. Mrs. Wykoff presented "This is your life" which greatly surprised many of the Seniors.

The Junior Choir sang two numbers "Today" and "May The Good Lord Bless and Keep You".

The teachers provided a comedy skit which depicted the shenanigans which go on in many of the Senior Classes. Robert Evenbeck and Alice Peters played a piano duet "Tonight" and Bob also played a solo "Exodus".

The Student Council gains much experience in its responsibilities. Besides supervising the Homecoming activities and the Prom, members are in charge of Recognition Day, sponsor dances after games, and daily monitor the halls.

The representatives from each class and organization in high school compose the membership of this student governing body. The Student Council strives to promote better citizenship, high ideals, scholarship and school spirit.

"A world to be born under your footsteps . . ." —St.-John Perse.

Youth today, but leaders tomorrow. Honor students best exemplify the American ideals of ambition, incentive, and integrity needed to gain the goals they have set. Members of National Honor Society must maintain a three-point grade average throughout high school. They must successfully exhibit the qualities of service, leadership, high character and scholarship. The local chapter was honored this year to have Duane Dukes elected to the post of sergeant-at-arms in the County Honor Socieity.

"A hundred men may make an encampment, but it takes a woman to make a home." -- Chinese Proverb

The purpose of the Future Homemakers of America is to instill within its members the qualities and ideals of a good homemaker. The girls work toward three degrees: Junior Degree, Chapter Degree, and State Degree. This April, after much hard work, four Seniors, Jacquie Swartz, Ruth Pelton, Julia Long and Judy Steyer, received their State Degrees. The Local Chapter was honored this year to have Kathy Wolery elected to the high post of County President of the County FHA.

"Nothing great was ever achieved without enthusiasm."

-- Emerson

Enthusiasm is one thing our GAA girls excel in. GAA participates in many sports and activities that stress physical development. Among these are: bowling, volleyball, basketball, and ping-pong. The highest award of the GAA is the Honor Award. To achieve this, a girl must have accumulated 300 points over a four year period by attending and participating in various activities. The Girls' Basketball Team, selected from members of GAA, have been coached by Miss Stewart to acquire the skills and techniques needed to play a good basketball game. The Varsity finished their season with a four and two record, and the Reserves played an undefeated season.

"I came, I saw, I conquered." -- Julius Caesar

Varsity A is a newly formed organization at Arcadia this year. Anyone who has earned a Varsity letter in Football, Basketball, Wrestling, or Track is eligible for membership. Advisors of the group are Mr. Keller and Mr. Reigle. The purpose is to create unity and fellowship among the athletes and to achieve this, rules and regulations govern them. The Red and Black Varsity A jacket is a marked distinction of the members. This year's sports record proves that We came, We saw, and We conquered.

"Next to acquiring good friends, the best acquisition is that of good books." -- Colton

The Arcadia Library has made a point of acquiring many new and interesting books this year. The staff, which has been directed and supervised this year by Mrs. Noel, is composed of juniors and seniors. Their duties, other than chasing out the students who talk, are dusting, repairing and filing the many books in the library, caring for the reference books, newspapers, and magazines in the study hall, and, of course, signing out books.

Arcadian Staff

Headlines, Deadlines, Cutlines, Pastelines

After a year of scrambling for the meaning of these terms, the Staff has finally been successful in completing this year's Arcadian. They have strived to capture the most memorable aspects of life at Arcadia High, and hope it will hold many memories for the Class of '68.

The Pro on the Go

Hurray! We Did It!

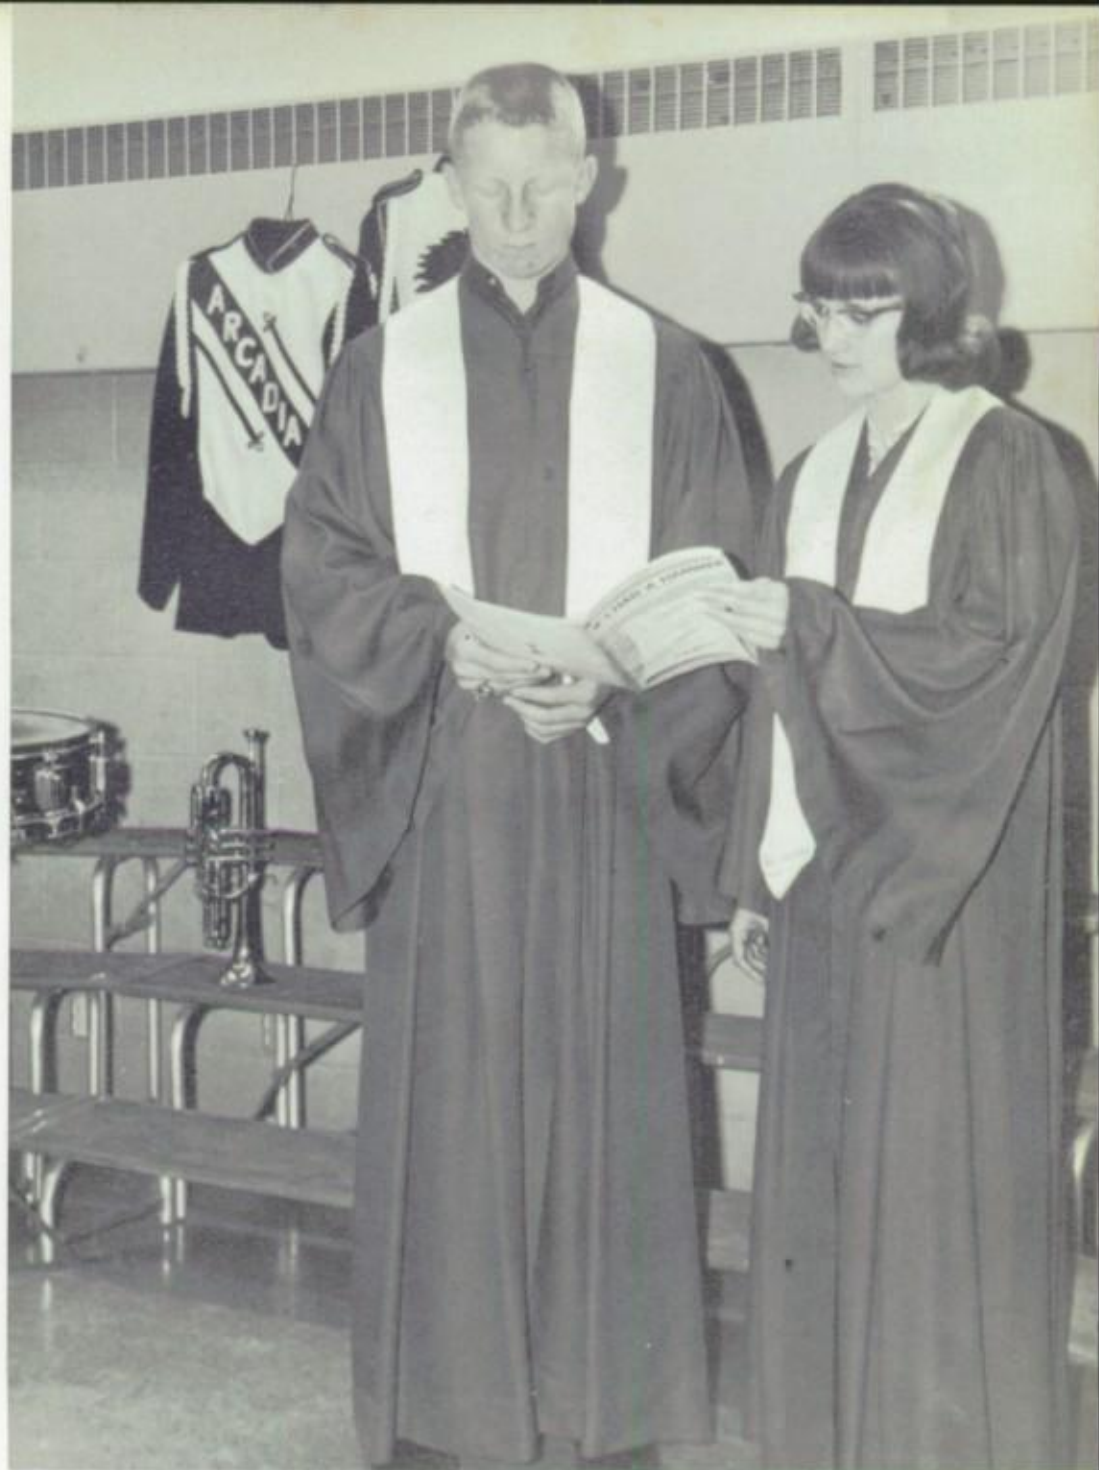

This year's advertising staff hit the all-time high. Although their goal was to sell $1500 worth of ads, they sold more than $500 over this aim. To celebrate the grand achievement the group held a party at Alana Heischman's on May 5. The food was plentiful, pool shooters were sharp, and all had a very "Funderful" time!

March 29, 1968, the Arcadia choir presented an operetta entitled "The Belle of the West". Roarin' Creek, Idaho, a small town in the West, is the setting for a plot that revolved around Mrs. Ida Mae Brown, a lovely lady barber. The lively music and humorous verses helped the operetta to be a big success.

Elementary

Elementary

Mr. James Miller as the principal of the Elementary School, works very closely with the students. Mr. Miller, through his athletic work with the grade school students, gives the impetus that carries over into high school and becomes the product for Mr. Keller and Mr. Reigle to then mold and work into our high school athletic program.

Mr. Miller works, with his teachers, to keep our elementary school at a high level of academic excellence and yet promote a young and happy atmosphere for little people.
